Upfront payment	A student pays tuition fees on or before the census date regardless of whether or not they would be entitled to a VET Student Loan.
MEL course	Contains VET units of study that leads to a Diploma level qualification

3 Principles

The following set of principles describes the objectives and outcomes of the policy:

3.1 Principle 1: Eligibility for refund

Mater Education Limited (MEL) will repay to any MEL student who is, or would be, enrolled in a VET unit of study, any upfront payment of VET tuition fees if the student withdraws from that unit of study on or before the relevant census date.

3.2 Principle 2: Fairness

This policy must be accessible to all MEL students who are, or seek to enrol, in a MEL VET unit of study. It applies to all MEL students who make upfront payment of tuition fees for a MEL VET unit of study.

3.3 Principle 3: Discretion

Where a MEL student withdraws from a VET unit of study after the relevant census date, any refund of VET tuition fees is at the discretion of MEL's Chief Executive Officer.
